

Selkirk Training Bursary: Congratulations to Our 2023 Bursary Winner

Selkirk Canada Inc. and WETT would like to congratulate Mitchell Somerville, the 2023 winner of the Selkirk Training Bursary.

Mitchell works as a sales associate for The Fireplace Centre, in Kamloops, BC. Mitchell's roles include sales and installations. He also attends trainings and studies installation manuals. Mitchell feels that becoming WETT certified is an important step in his development as a hearth professional.

During his time at The Fireplace Centre, Mitchell has proven himself to be irreplaceable. His positive attitude helps make the shop a happy and friendly place to do business.

The purpose of this bursary is to provide financial assistance to a person seeking WETT certification as an installer, system advisor or sweep following the WETT paths to certification. This bursary will cover the course fees for one individual per year seeking WETT certification.
